FACTS
What does Lake Trust do with your personal information?

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number
- Credit history
- Account balances
- Mailing Address
- Overdraft history
- Payment history
- Account transactions
- Email Address

How?
All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information; the reasons Lake Trust Credit Union chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

| How does Lake Trust Credit Union collect my personal information? | We collect your personal information, for example, when you
• Open an account
• Pay your bills
• Use your credit or debit card
• Apply for financing
• Make a wire transfer
• Complete a form

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies. |
| Why can’t I limit all sharing? | Federal law gives you the right to limit only
• sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness
• affiliates from using your information to market to you
• sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. |
| What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else? | Your choices will apply to everyone on your account. |
